

RAND CLUB

JOHANNESBURG

At the beating heart of Johannesburg's historic business district, astride its plunging seam of gold, stands Rand Club – a timeless South African icon and exclusive destination event venue.

Founded in 1887 in the fledgling days of Johannesburg, Rand Club is the city's most enduring social institution and finest heritage venue. Its story is inextricably bound to that of Johannesburg itself.

Rand Club opened its doors on 10 December 1887, a year and two days after the first stand in the newly-proclaimed township of Johannesburg had been sold. The Club figured in political upheavals in which it officially took no part, and wielded great influence in times of crisis. Its colourful and often dramatic history is closely linked with the development of the world's greatest goldfield and with the emergence of modern, democratic South Africa.

Today Rand Club is representative of contemporary South African society and is open to everyone who wishes to share in its story, regardless of gender, race or creed.

As one explores the Clubhouse, one is left in little doubt that history is not merely on display. Johannesburg's history has been made here.

Rand Club is a tranquil oasis in the city, located in the safe and cosmopolitan banking and mining district. Easy access from the M2 motorway, dedicated parking in the Club's Loveday Street enclosure and 120 secure overflow parking bays in close proximity to the Clubhouse make Rand Club a convenient and accessible destination. A shuttle service between the overflow parking and Clubhouse is available.

Rand Club has a perfect space for any occasion. Previously enjoyed by Members only, Rand Club's exceptional rooms are now available to Members and non-Members alike at affordable rates. With twelve magnificent spaces providing a glimpse into the soul of South Africa's most enigmatic venue, Rand Club offers you and your guests the opportunity to gather and celebrate in timeless elegance.
